In this Age of Aquarius new gateways are being opened. Time passed has seen us through many trials — joys and sadness, rejoicings and mournings. Seemingly we have been victorious, but the battle is yet to come. This is the education that we set out to acquire — this is the true learning.

The great victory will come when, after travelling along the road — sometimes crawling and sometimes running, we learn that the ideal goal is, "to choose one gateway to enter, taking care to look through all and neglect none."

We, the staff of THE ARCH, INVITE YOU TO JOIN US in our travel through THE ARCH 1971 . . . "The gateway to the seventies". We invite you, brothers and sisters, to join hands in these encounters of the seventies, and make this travel a dream. And if you be disappointed, do not despair. Always remember . . . "somewhere a queen is weeping and somewhere a king has no wife".

Dedication

It is with much appreciation and devotion that we dedicate THE ARCH 1971 to Dr. William J. Barnhart.

Dr. Barnhart joined the Florida Memorial College family in 1963. He is a native of Boonville, Missouri and began his early education there at Central College. Later he attended Michigan State College and the University of Vienna for special classes. Receiving his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from the University of Tennessee, he went on to attain his Phd. in English from the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Barnhart has made many valuable contributions to Florida Memorial, especially in the areas of literature and publications.

For the past seven years he has served as advisor to THE ARCH, and from 1964-1965 he advised THE LION'S DEN, the campus newspaper. In 1964, he established the Alpha Omega Chapter of Lambda Iota Tau, an International Literary Honor Society. In 1965 he brought Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges to Florida Memorial's campus, and in 1968 he sponsored THE LAMP, a publication of Lambda Iota Tau.

Dr. Barnhart is now chairman of the Division of Humanities, chairman of the Self-Study Steering Committee, and a former chairman of the Faculty Senate.

He holds membership in the Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society as well as the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

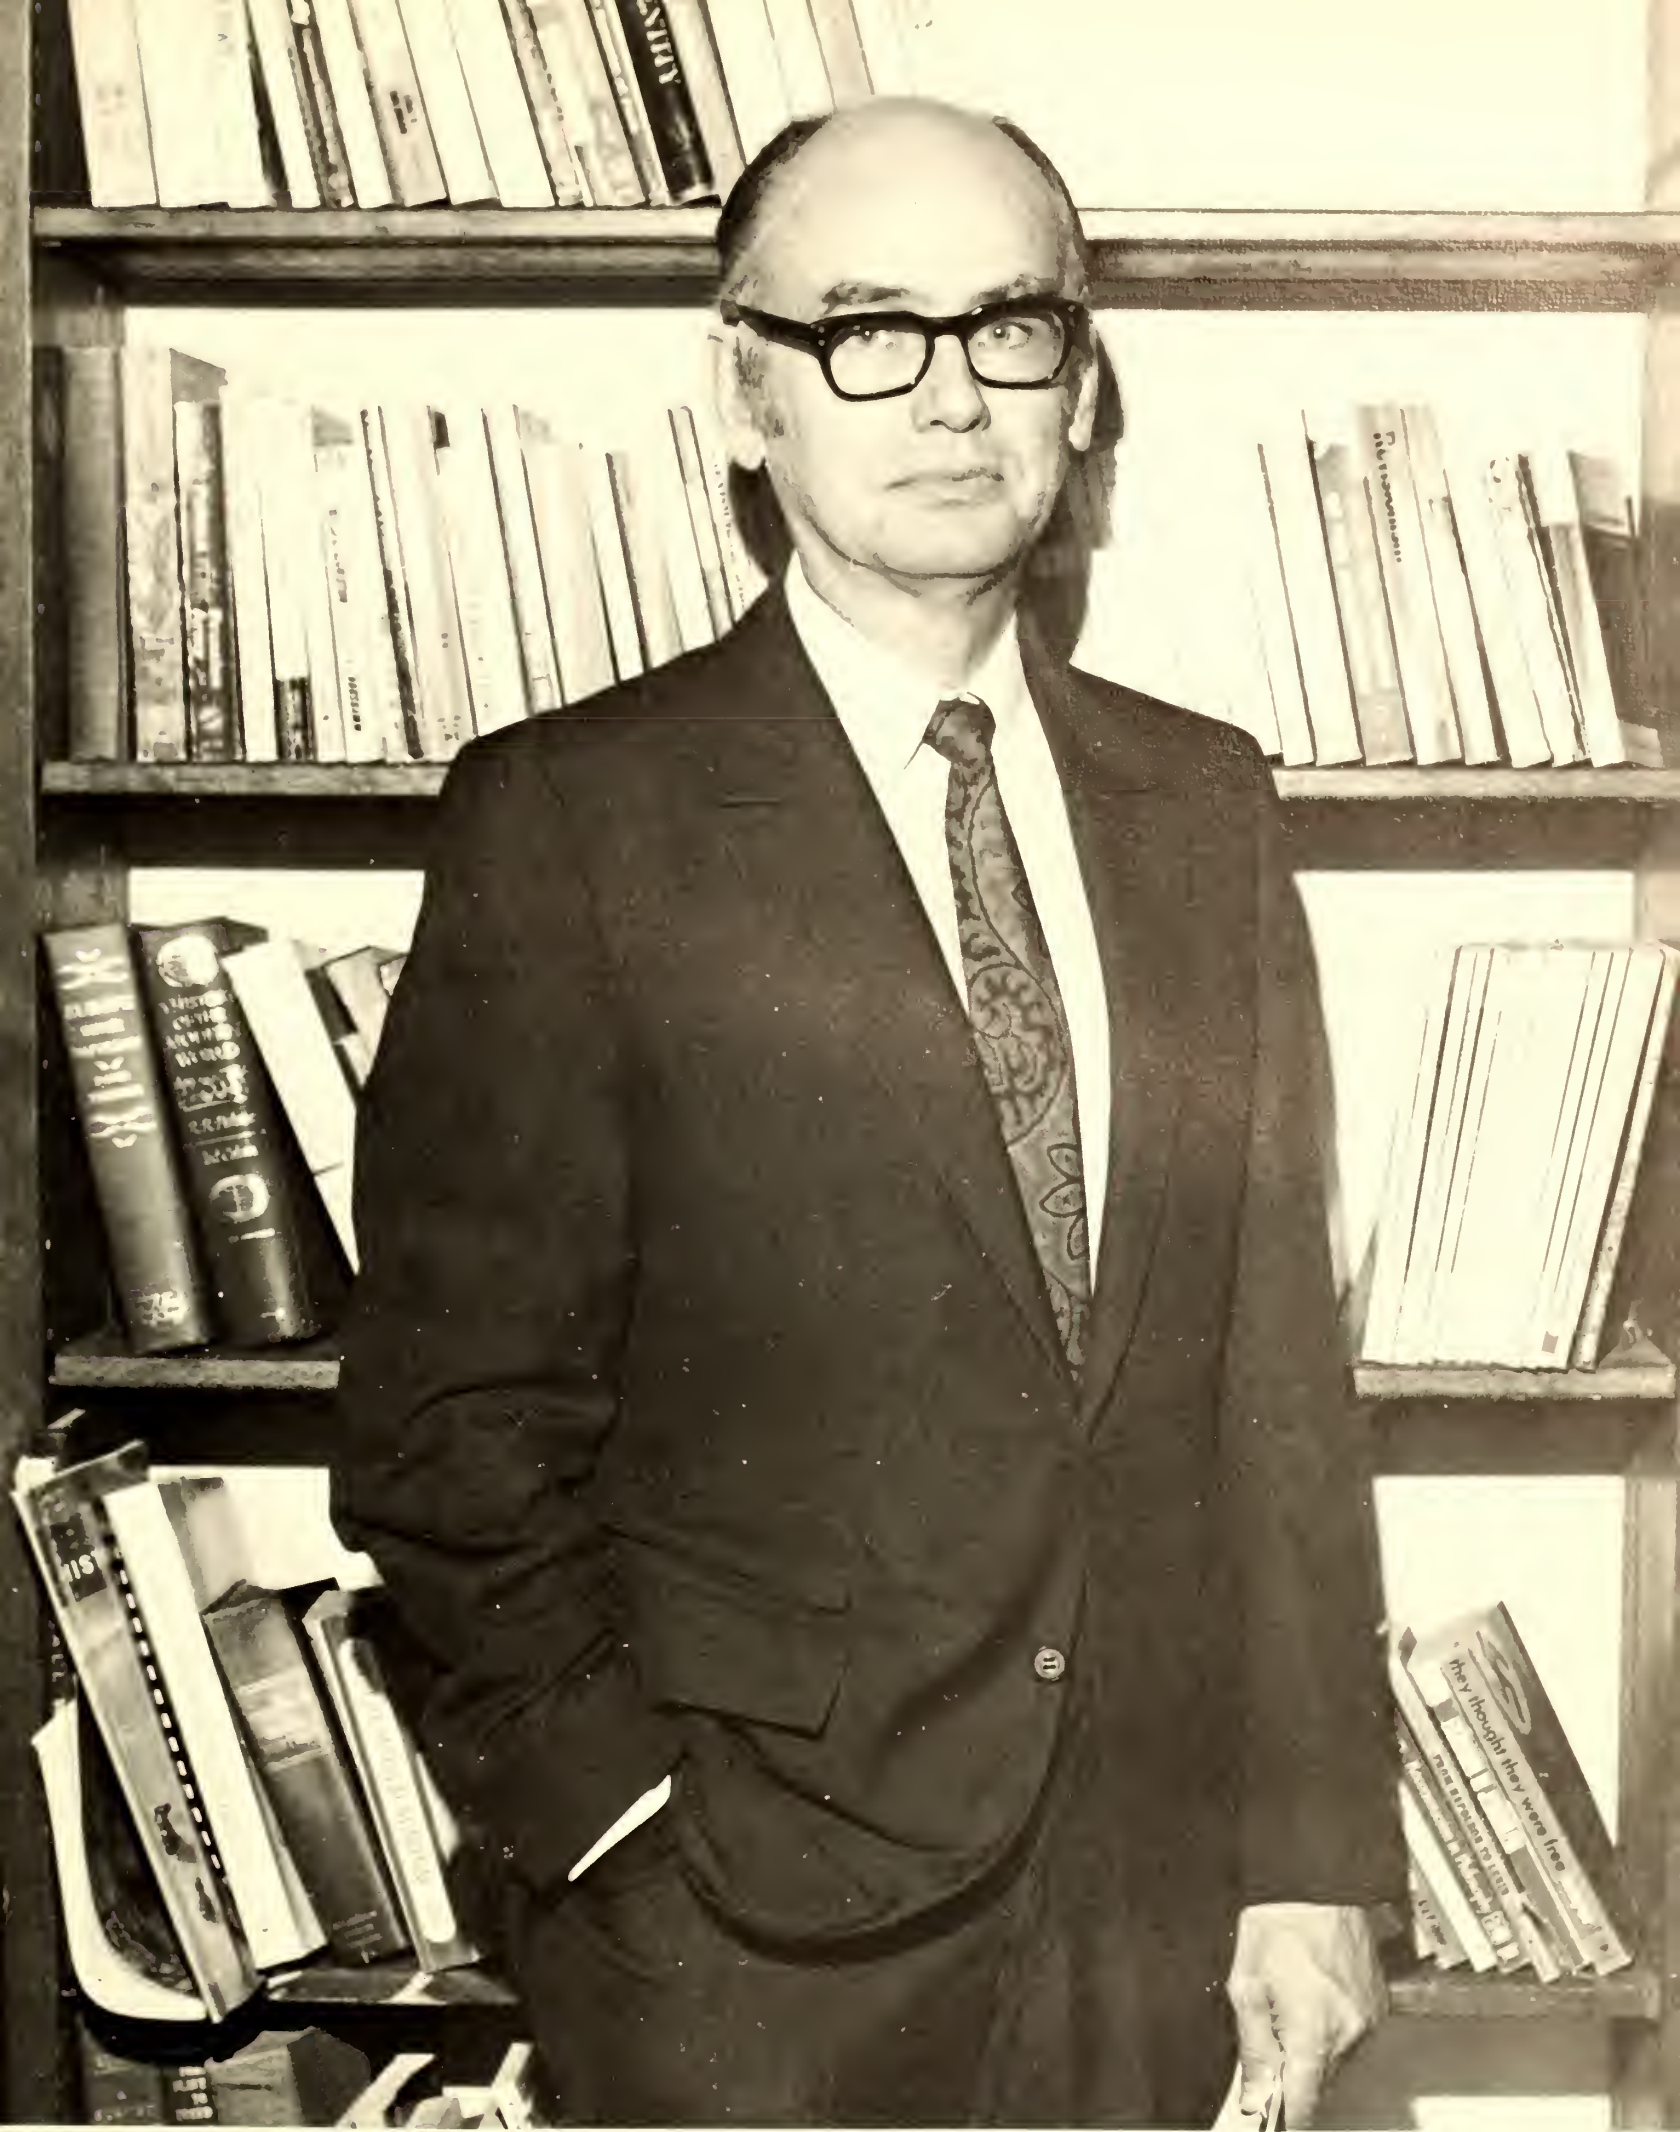

Dr. Barnhart receives plaque from S.G.A. President, Mr. Arthur J. Hill, for his service to THE ARCH.

Dr. Barnhart with Editor-in-Chief, Edmund Knowles, and new advisor Mrs. Carol J. McArthur.

LAMBDA IOTA TAU was established in 1935. At present, it has more than fifty-seven chapters in the United States, Canada, and Japan, and maintains the Headquarters for the International Executive Secretary at Fort Hays Kansas State College, Hays, Kansas. The Society is dedicated to "the recognition of excellence in the study of literature."

Alpha Omega Chapter was chartered August 31, 1964, with Dr. Barnhart as the Moderator and Barry College (Sister Robert Louise, O.P., and Sister Thomas Catherine, O.P.) as the sponsoring college. Since then Alpha Omega Chapter of FMC has sponsored the chapters at the University of Florida and at Florida State University.

This Fall the members of Alpha Omega Chapter attended the initiation of new members at Barry College. Alpha Omega Chapter sponsors THE LAMP, FMC's literary magazine. Miss Sharon Lockhart is editor of the 1971 volume, and also president of the chapter.

If nature says to you,
"I intend you for something fine,
For something to sing the song
That only my whirling stars can sing,
For something to burn in the firmament
With all the fervor of my golden sun,
For something to moisten the parched souls
As only my rivulets can moisten the parched,"
What can you do?
If the System says to you,
"I intend you to grind and grind
Grains of corn beneath millstones;
I intend you to shovel and sweat
Before a furnace of Babylon;
I intend you for grist and meat
To fatten my pompous gods
As they wallow in an alcoholic nectar,"
What can you do?
Naught can you do
But watch that eternal battle
Between Nature and the System.
You cannot blame God,
You cannot blame man;
For God did not make the System,
Neither did man fashion Nature.
You can only die each morning,
And live again in the dreams of the night.
If Nature forgets you,
If the System forgets you,
God has blest you.
-Fenton Johnson

Dr. Vince Gabianelli

Sank through easeful azure. Flower creatures flashed and shimmered there—
 lost images
 fadingly remembered.
 Swiftly descended
 into canyon of cold
 nightgreen emptiness.
 Freefalling, weightless as in dreams of
 wingless flight,
 plunged through infra-
 space and came to the dead ship,
 carcass that swarmed with
 voracious life.
 Angelfish, their lively blue and yellow prised from darkness by the
 flashlight's beam,
 thronged her portholes.
 Moss of bryozoans
 blurred, obscured her metal. Snappers,
 gold groupers explored her,
 fearless of bubbling manfish. I entered the wreck, awed by her silence,
 feeling more keenly
 the iron cold.
 With flashlight probing
 fogs of water
 saw the sad slow
 dance of gilded
 chairs, the ectoplasmic
 swirl of garments,
 drowned instruments
 of buoyancy,
 drunken shoes. Then
 livid gesturings, eldritch hide and
 seek of laughing faces. I yearned to find those hidden ones, to fling aside
 the mask and call to them,
 yield to rapturous
 whisperings, have done with self and every dinning
 vain complexity.
 Yet in languid frenzy strove, as one freezing fights off
 sleep desiring sleep;
 strove against the cancelling arms that suddenly surrounded me, fled the numbing
 kisses that I craved.
 Reflex of life - wish?
 Respirator's brittle belling? Swam from the ship somehow;
 somehow began the
 measured rise.
 -Robert E. Hayden

Natalie Hinderas In Concert

Folks, I come up North
Cause they told me de North was fine
I come up North
Cause they told me de North was fine
Been up here six months-
I'm about to lose my mind.

This mornin for breakfast
I chawed de mornin' air
This morin' for breakfast
Chawed de mornin' air
But this evenin' for supper,
I got evenin' air to spare

Believe I'll do a little dancin
Just to drive my blues away-
A little dancin'
To drive my blues away,
Cause when I'm dancin'
De blues forgets to stay.

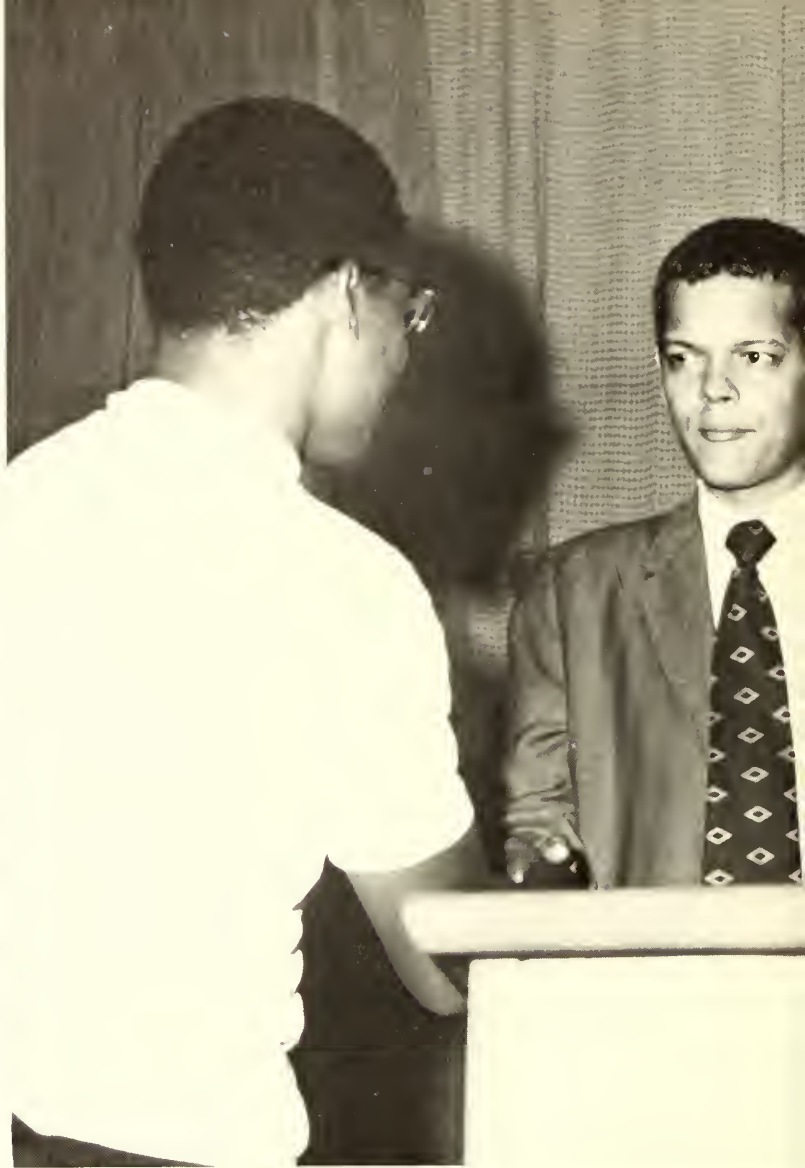

But if you was to ask me
How the blues they come to be,
Says if you was to ask me
How the blues they come to be-
You wouldn't need to ask me:
Just look at me and see!

BACK ROW: Catherine Taylor, Garnell Kemp, Mrs. Sarah Askew, Marcia Smith, Thelma Barnett, Marcia North, Faye Jerido, Marva Russell. KNEELING: May Holloway, Laura Showers, Shirley Henry, SITTING: Ruby Brown, Adrilla Horton.

The Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on Howard University's campus, January 16, 1920. It was suggested to Arizona Clever by Charles S. Taylor, a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, that she establish a sister organization. This has become a national organization of college women banded together under a common bond of friendship and cultural effort seeking to establish the true worth of womanhood through excellence in education, human service and citizenship. The motto of Zeta Phi Beta is "Finer Womanhood, Scholarship, Sisterly Love."

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Howard University, Washington D.C. on January 13, 1913. The Zeta Tau Chapter was established on September 19, 1969, with eleven Charter members. This sorority is new to the Florida Memorial College campus, but it is certainly not new to the ideals of high scholarship and service to all mankind. The motto of Delta Sigma Theta, "Intelligence is the Torch of Wisdom," will always be an integral part of every Delta's life.

Miss Delta Sigma Theta

The Many Moods Of Ossie Davis

We is gathahed hyeah, my brothahs,
In dis howlin' wildaness,
Fu' to speak some words of comfo't
To each othah in distress.
An' we chooses fu' ouah subjc'
Dis — we'll 'splain it by an' by;
"An' de Lawd said, 'Moses, Moses,'
An' de man said, 'Hyeah am I,'"

Now ole Pher'oh, down in Egypt,
Was de wuss man evah bo'n,
An' he had de Hebrew chillun
Down dah wukin' in his co'n;
'Twel de Lawd got tiahed o' his foolin',
An' sez he: "I'll let him know—
Look hyeah, Moses, go tell Pher'oh
Fu' to let dem chillun go."

"An' ef he refuse to do it,
I will make him rue de houah,
Fu' I'll empty down on Egypt
All de vials of my power."
Yes, he did — an' Pher'oh's ahmy
Wasn't wuth a ha'f a dime;
Fu' de Lawd will he'p his chillun,
You kin trust him evah time.

An' yo' enemies may 'sail you
In de back an' de front;
But de Lawd is all aroun' you,
Fu' to ba' de battle's brunt.
Dey kin fo'ge yo' chains an' shackles
F'om de mountains to de sea;
But de Lawd will sen' some Moses
Fu' to set his chillun free.

An' de lan' shall hyeah his thundah,
Lak a blas' f'om Gab'el's ho'n.
Fu' de Lawd of hosts is mighty
When he girds his ahmor on.
But fu' feah some one mistakes me,
I will pause right hyeah to say,
Dat I'm still a-preachin' ancient,
I ain't talkin' 'bout to'day.

But I tell you, fellah christuns,
Things'll happen mighty strange;
Now, de Lawd done dis fu' Isrul,
An' his ways don't nevah change,
An' de love he showed to Isrul

Wasn't all on Isrul spent;
Now don't run an' tell yo' mastahs
Dat I'l preachin' discontent.

'Cause I isn't; I'se a-judgin'
Bible people by deir ac's;
I'se a-givin' you de Scriptuah,
I'se a-handin' you de fac's.
Cose ole Pher'oh b'lieved in slav'ry,
But de Lawd he let him see,
Dat de people he put bref in,—
Evah mothah's son was free.

An' dahs othahs thinks lak Pher'oh,
But dey calls de Scriptuah liar,
Fu' de Bible says "a servant
Is a-worthy of his hire."
An' you cain't git roun' nor thoo dat,
An' you cain't git ovah it,
Fu' whatevah place you git in,
Dis hyeah Bible too'll fit.

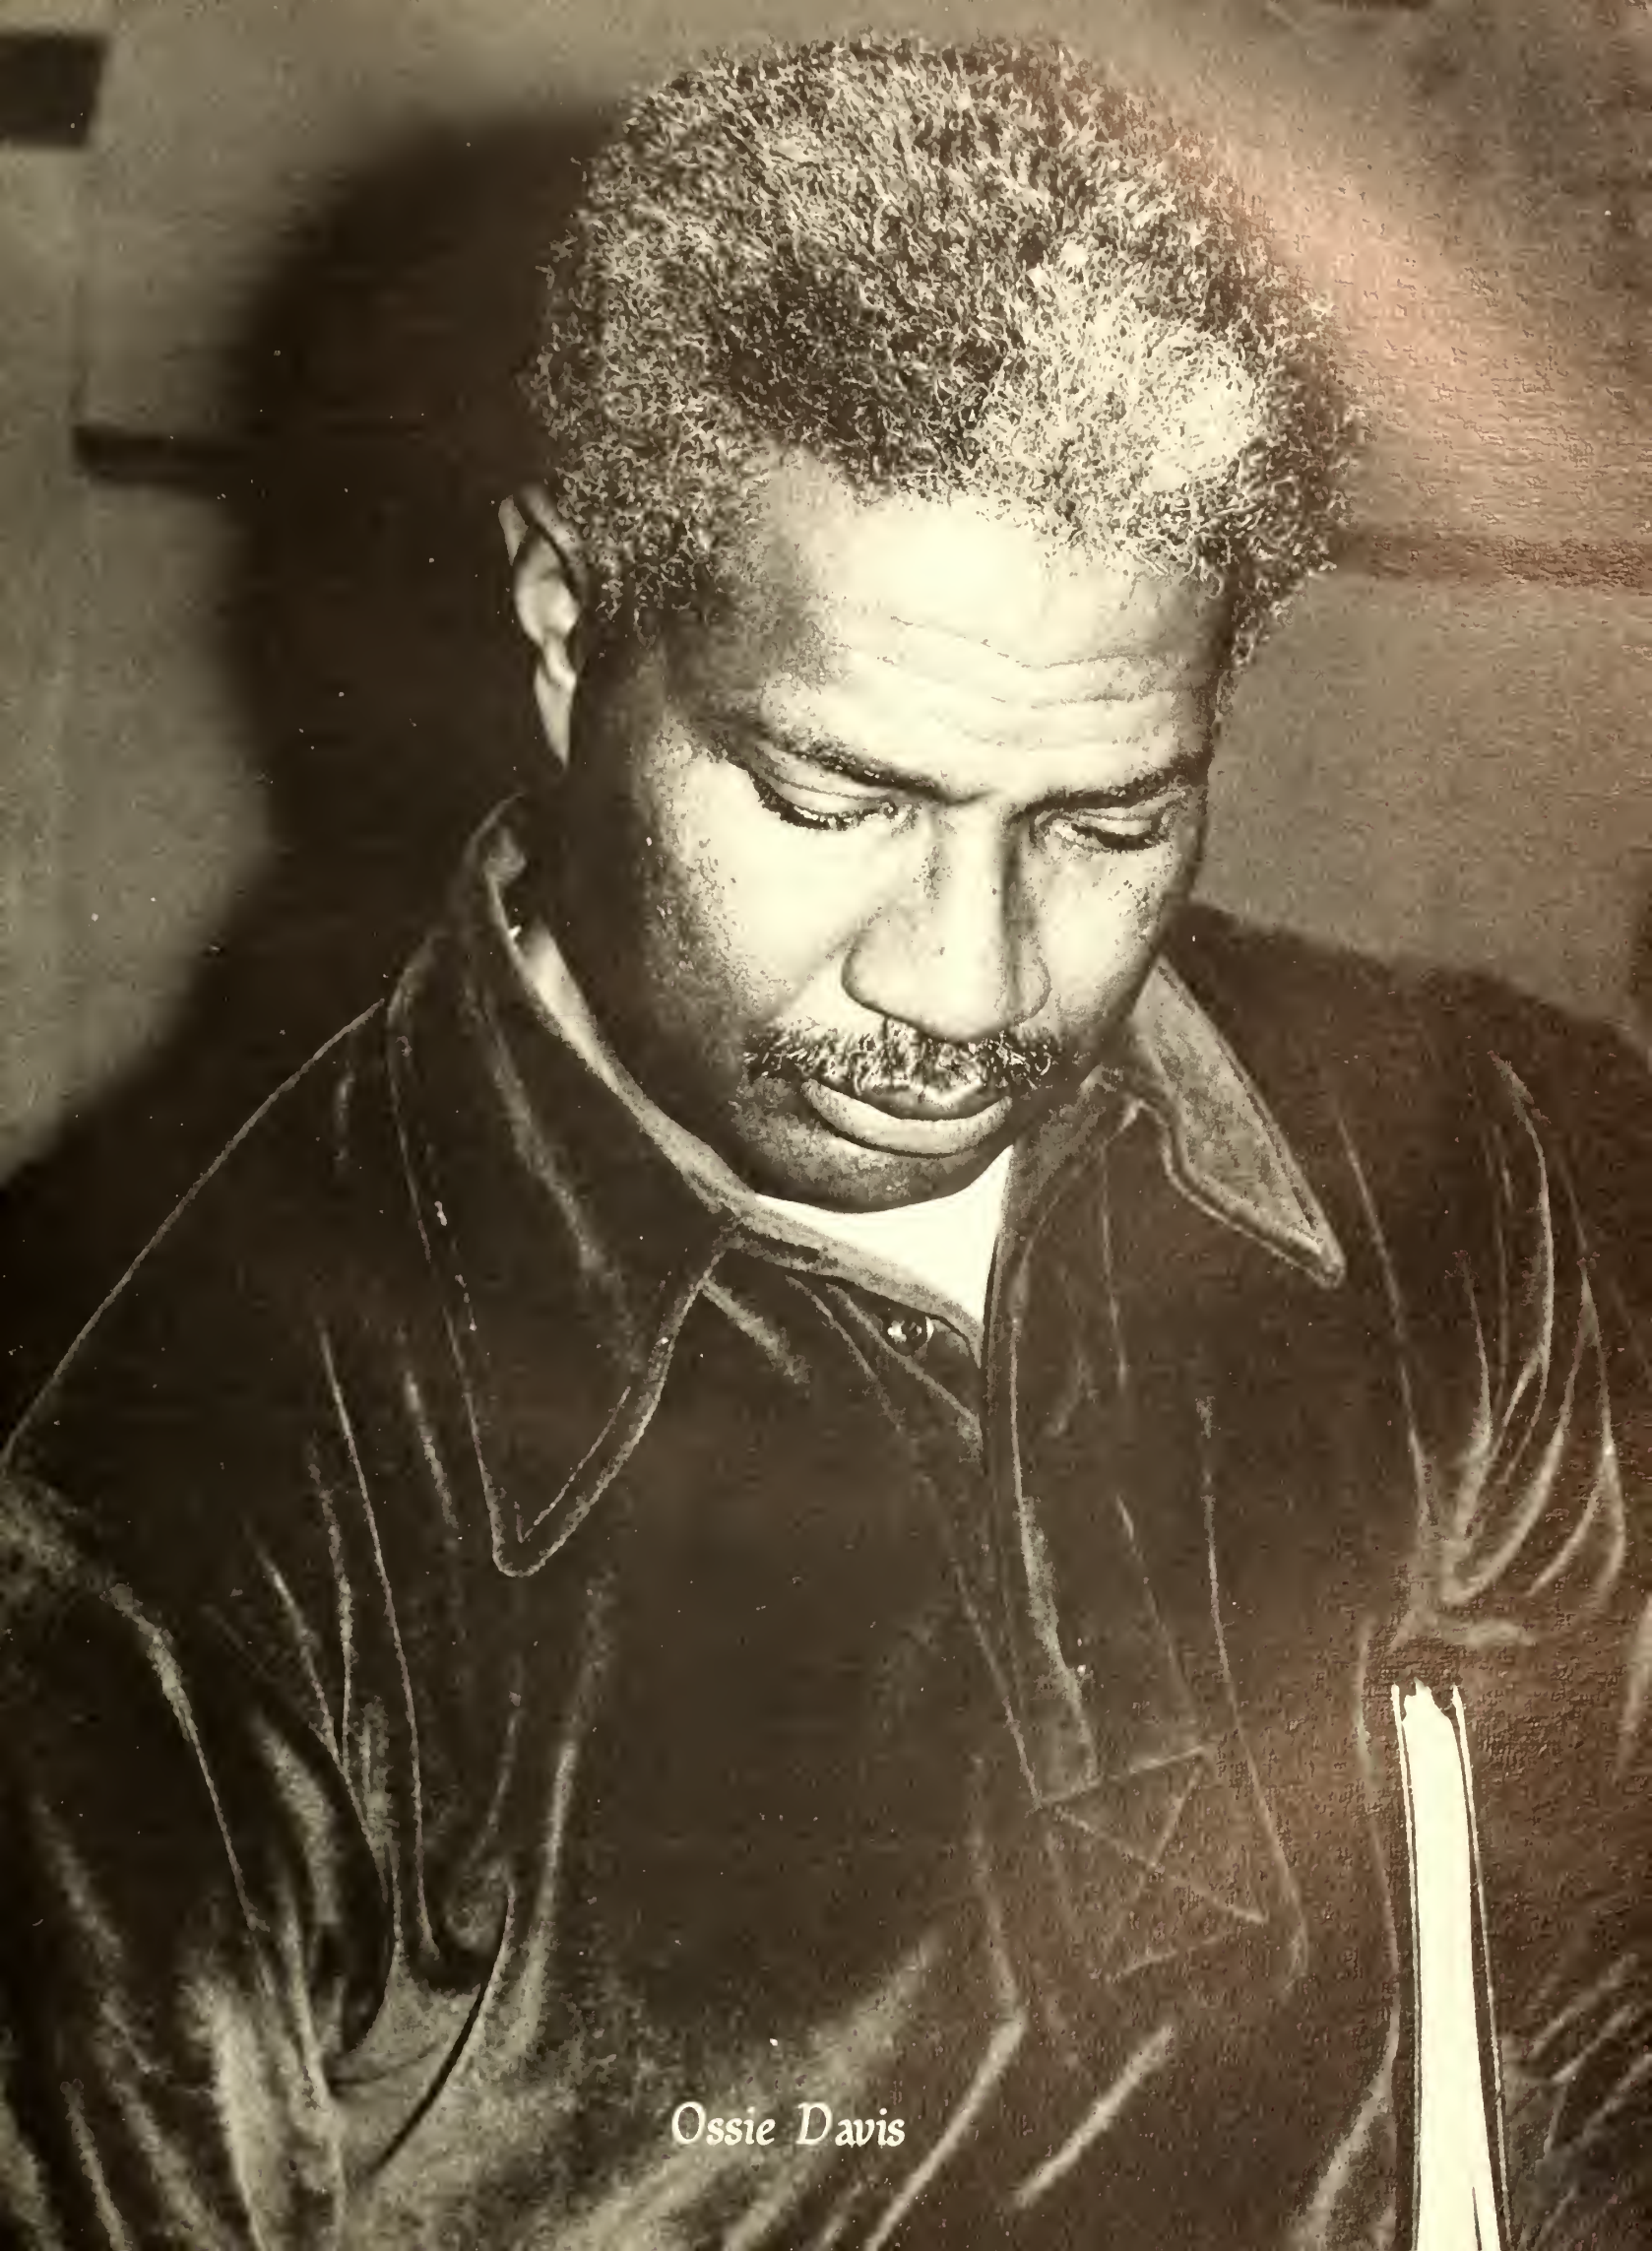

So you see de Lawd's intention,
Evah sence de worl' began,
Was dat His almighty freedom
Should belong to evah man,
But I think it would be bettah,
Ef I'd pause agin to say,
Dat I'm talkin' 'bout ouah freedom
In a Bibleistic way.

But de Moses is a-coming',
An' he's comin' suah and fas'.
We kin hyeah his feet a-trompin',
We kin hyeah his trumpit blas'.
But I want to wa'n you people,
Don't you git too frigity;
An' don't you git to braggin'
'Bout dese things, you wait an' see.

But when Moses wif his powah
Comes an' sets us chillun free,
We will praise de gracious Mastah
Dat has gin us liberty;
An' we'll shout ouah halleluyahs,
On dat mighty reck'nin' day,
When we'se reco'nised ez citiz'—
Huh uh! Chillun, let us pray!

The Florida Memorial's Get-A-Way Express was started in St. Augustine, Fla., the previous site of Florida Memorial College in 1968. At that time the group was known as the "Soul Shockers". The idea of a Rock 'n Roll Band was first conceived by James Dorsett, Ronnie Williams, Paul Williams, Frank Johnson and Edmond Knowles, who served as master of ceremony and band manager for two years.

Mr. Brayden, at that time, Band Director at the College saw in the band the opportunity to shock the little spanish city. He became sponsor and advisor to the band and later took on the responsibility of Business Manager for them.

Upon coming to Miami, the band got started in hard rock, jazz, classical music, psychedelic junk and in short a much more broadened field of music. They have appeared in numerous of the top night spots in the City of Miami, among them the famous Continental and Mr. D. In Fort Lauderdale they appeared in the well known Soul City.

Get-A-Way Express

In Miami, Mr. John Price, Professor of Music at the College became advisor to the group and was quite instrumental in making it possible for them to appear on several T.V. Shows and also make recordings with others of Florida Memorial's secret stars, namely, Mr. Freddie Munnings, Mr. Timothy Thomas and Florida Memorial's own College Choir.

In the estimation of the Yearbook's Staff, and we are certain that we do not stand alone on this, the Get-a-Way Express has made a tremendous contribution to the enrichment of social life on the campus. More than often have they voluntarily "jammed" in the S.U.B. spreading their "love, peace and happiness" throughout the campus — their melodious tones echoing from the stately halls of Miami to the coquina walls of St. Augustine. To the Get-A-Way Express we say "Let the beat go on."

"And now a word from the president."

The President's Message

1970-71

This might very well be called the year of Greater Challenge — the college was attempting to recover from the same type of student unrest at the end of the 1969-70 school year that has swept the nation, and an untimely heart attack by the President of the College made the year even more critical.

Faced with liens against its buildings amounting to more than $320,000 the college faced another formidable task. Without money, and it could not be secured as long as the liens were against the buildings, the progress and growth of the college's physical plant was at a stand-still. Nevertheless, the progress made by the college in the last eight months has been truly noteworthy. Among these accomplishments are the:

*Award of a $207,500 grant from the Kellogg Foundation to beef up the college's business administration program.

*Addition of key administrative staff members, with a young, progressive yet mature philosophy, including the Dean of the College, Director of Admissions, Dean of Students, Dean of Men, Dean of Women, and Director of Public Relations. Several highly-qualified staff and faculty members were also added.

*Award of a grant to train five promising students for medical careers.

*More effective student-faculty-administration relationships with the addition of the new dean and the start of the student newspaper, The Lion's Den.

*A significant heightening of the academic life and curriculum at the college, including substantial improvements in the school's library and its related services. (See Exhibit "C".)

We have made other significant gains, these are but a few of them. In our main divisions of interests we saw these as some of the changes and beginnings:

ACADEMIC LIFE: Since the appointment of the new Dean of the College, the Academic Council, an important arm of the academic future of the college, has begun meeting weekly. In this short period of time they have already revised the Faculty Handbook, started a complete revision of the college catalog for the school year 1971-72, begun consideration of revised degree programs in all fields, and strengthened the requirements on college-wide testing requiring the GRE of all graduating seniors, the NTE of all teacher candidates and other appropriate examinations in other programs.

The faculty has begun to tighten its organization and operation. The faculty senate has become more active in all phases of campus life.

Though these changes and directions are outstanding, we are not stopping here in our academic progress. The academic life of a college is a healthy environment, a thriving environment where we take girls and boys, many with little worldliness about them and make educated men and women of them. Much of this education centers not only around the academic life, but also around the "how you survive in this world because you're black."

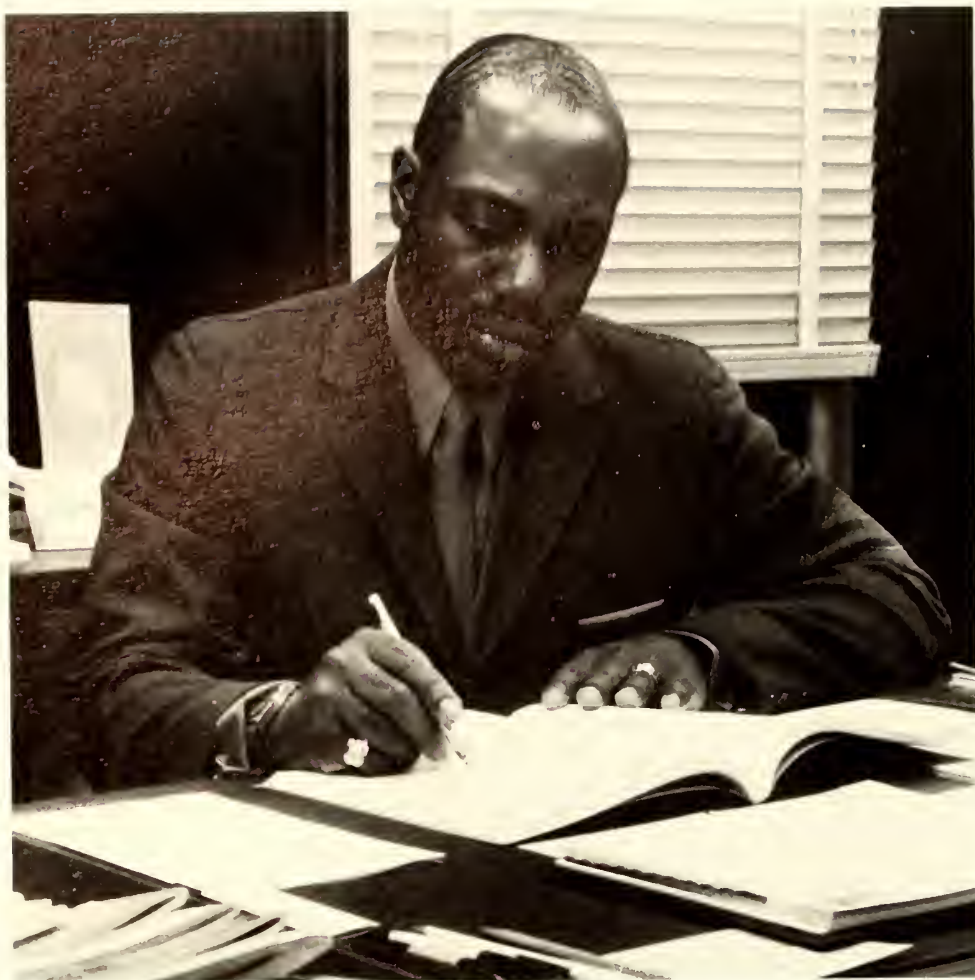

One of the biggest tasks the college has ahead of it is one of absolute involvement of all factions of the community, especially the Miami community. To assist us with this is the first black man to be elected to a School Board post in the State of Florida, Mr. William Turner. Mr. Turner is now a member of our staff serving as Director of Placement and Community Relations.

In some way we must involve the students, the staff, the faculty and administration in all phases of our campus and community life, but we must not forget that the continued growth of the institution depends very heavily on the support we are able to mount from volunteers in Miami and throughout the country that are businessmen, housewives, laborers, politicians, bankers, educators, graduates and alumni of the college. If we do not have the involvement of all of these people and more, our doors most assuredly will close and none of us want to see the demise of the college. We firmly believe it is here to stay.

Miami is growing and we are growing with it. A major effort has begun to have a class this September of 875 students. With renewed efforts in recruitment, we feel confident we will reach that goal. The time that Florida Memorial College will have 1,300 is not far away.

This represents just a broad overview of the year 1970-71. It has been a challenging year. But we feel, very sincerely, that we have met the challenge but the major part of our task lies ahead in the years to come. Let's get on with the job.

Dr. Lester B. Brown, Dean of the College.

Florida Memorial College's President, Dr. Royal W. Puryear, has announced the appointment of Dr. Lester B. Brown as the new Dean of the College.

A cum laude graduate of Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., Dr. Brown comes to Florida Memorial from Albany State College where he was professor of science education. With his appointment, he brings to the college more than twenty years of experience in education and science.

The forty-one-year-old dean, who will be responsible for curriculum and general supervision of the academic life at the college, is a native of Delhi, Louisiana.

Mr. Paul H. Wyche, Jr. has been named Director of Public Relations for Florida Memorial College, effective Feb. 15, 1971. Mr. Wyche, whose firm, Images International, Inc., a locally-based public relations, advertising and marketing company, has been contracted by the college to perform public relations services.

The 24-year-old Mr. Wyche, is president of Images International, and served as Director of Public Affairs for three years for the Economic Opportunity Program, Inc., the local anti-poverty program. He has also served as editorial contributor and urban writer for the Miami News for four years and has been a contributor to numerous national publications including Ebony, Jet, National Observer, and National Catholic Weekly.

Mr. Paul H. Wyche, Director of Public Relations.

Self Interpretation

Afterward

"The heart of a child"

"The sleeping giant"

Well, sisters and brothers, we have had a most beautiful journey, a most enlightening experience. We have passed through the gateway.

Education is like love. Everybody needs it. Man chooses different ways by which to educate himself. We have chosen the books and the long hours of study, and we have excelled in them. Sometimes as we have trudged across the dark rugged roads, we have thought that, "The battle is lost." We have passed through "The Gateway to the Seventies," but the road stretches far ahead into an abyss. We have tasted the joy of victory and have borne the agony of defeat. But we have realized that this is our choice. Having seen all the ways, neglecting none, we have chosen this, "The College." This is our education; this is our gateway.

Although the journey be long and tiring, do not surrender and do not despair. And if perchance you are disappointed, you can change it. But remember that the change must always come from within. There is no escape. Fight your battle in this way that you have chosen. To us this is the only way. This is the only existence. This is present.

We, the staff of "The Arch 1971", have presented to you what we esteem the best of seventy-one. With untiring effort, we have tried to capture, through words and pictures, those precious memories of this college year. We have had our shortcomings, but we have survived.

It is our sincere hope that our presentations will remain dear to you, our fellow students. Some may feel disappointed, but I implore you, "Do not feel abandoned." There were times when we, the staff of "The Arch 1971," had our disappointments. But we have faced it all with the heart of a child and the courage of a lion, and we are proud to know that we have come the way.

We hope that you will look on our work with great happiness and that your eyes will brighten with excitement as your fingers slowly retrace the pages, your eager mind joyfully recounting each minute and your anxious heart proudly reliving the spirit of 1971.

These are memories that are dear to all of us. These are the memories of 1971. This is "The College" — FLORIDA MEMORIAL COLLEGE. This is our choice. This is "THE ARCH 1971" . . . "The Gateway to the Seventies."
